

PEOPLE'S CHOICE + DESIGN EXCELLENCE

May 14th, 2012

The Ontario Association of Architecture (OAA) awarded Ritchard Brisbin with a Design Excellence Award for his brilliant design of the Ottawa Convention Centre (OCC). The building was recognized as a leading example of the best in architecture based on a variety of criteria including: sustainability, creativity, legacy, good design/good business and overall context, exemplifying the significance of architecture in the public realm. Ritchard's creativity, innovation and "stunning bold design" was also recognized at the Celebration of Excellence Ceremony on May 12, 2012 with a prestigious second award, the 2012 OAA People's Choice Award for favourite new building in Ontario!
